Order making permanent the appointment of the Commissioner as statutory receiver.

DATED: February 2, 2021.

AARON D. FORD Attorney General

By: /s/ Joanna N. Grigoriev JOANNA N. GRIGORIEV (Bar. No. 5649) Senior Deputy Attorney General DAVID HALL (Bar No. 6333) Insurance Counsel Attorneys for Commissioner of Insurance as Statutory Temporary Receiver

I. SUMMARY

In its Opposition to the Motion for Order of Liquidation, the Opposing Counsel attempts to distract from what is before the Court, namely the Motion for an Order of Liquidation, based on two standalone statutory grounds for liquidation, both of which have been met. The Opposing Counsel's tools of diversion include, improper accounting techniques based on unsubstantiated figures from unknown sources, slanderous accusations of wrongdoing, and vitriol. Despite these red herrings, the only relevant fact remains: PIRRG's financial condition is such that it must be liquidated and the statutory grounds therefor have been met.

The law is clear. As set forth in the Temporary Receiver's Motion, unequivocally, the statutory grounds for liquidation under NRS 696B.220(1) and (2) have been met. PIRRG "has failed to cure an impairment of surplus, or capital, or assets within the time allowed therefor by any lawful order of the Commissioner"—the basis for liquidation under NRS 696B.220(1), and, additionally and alternatively, PIRRG is insolvent —the basis for liquidation under NRS 696B.220(2). As a result, PIRRG, as a matter of law, must be placed in a permanent receivership and liquidated . NRS 696B.220, 696B.220.250.

II. ARGUMENT

A. TWO OF THE STANDALONE STATUTORY GROUNDS FOR LIQUIDATION HAVE BEEN MET

1. NRS 696B.220 (1) Basis for Liquidation Has Been Met

As set forth in the Motion for Liquidation (Mot. 8:17-23, 9:1-12), PIRRG's failure to comply with the Corrective Order of the Commissioner of November 19, 2019, is a standalone ground for liquidation under NRS 696B.220(1). PIRRG "has failed to cure an impairment of surplus, or capital, or assets within the time allowed therefor by any lawful order of the Commissioner." NRS 696B.220(1).<sup>1</sup> PIRRG failed to comply with the Corrective Order of the Commissioner of November 19, 2019, which required the infusion of $800,000 of new capital and surplus within 30 days of the date of the Corrective Order, or December 19, 2019. Furthermore, it required that PIRRG's December 31, 2019 RBC ratio be in excess of 300%. PIRRG did not fulfill either of these requirements of the Corrective Order within the required timeframe.

This statutory basis for the entry of an Order of Liquidation goes unaddressed in the Opposition to the Motion for Liquidation. As shown above, failure to comply with a corrective order of the Commissioner is, of and by itself, grounds for the Court to enter an Order of Liquidation herein. NRS 696B.220(1) Therefore, under the statutory scheme of

(Emphasis added).

The Commissioner may apply to the court for an order appointing the Commissioner as receiver (if his or her appointment as receiver is not then in effect) and directing the Commissioner to liquidate the business of a domestic insurer or of the United States branch of an alien insurer having trusteed assets in this state, whether or not there has been a prior order directing the Commissioner to conserve or rehabilitate the insurer, upon any one or more of the following grounds: [t]hat the insurer has failed to cure an impairment of surplus, or capital, or assets within the time allowed therefor by any lawful order of the Commissioner;

the Nevada Liquidation Act, no further inquiry is necessary.

The Temporary Receiver will nonetheless address briefly the remaining inconsequential "arguments" of the Opposing Counsel.

2. The Alternative Basis for Liquidation Under NRS 696B.220(2) Has Also Been Met

PIRRG IS INSOLVENT

As clearly demonstrated in the Special Deputy Receiver's most recent status report, as of September 30, 2020, PIRRG is insolvent.<sup>2</sup> PIRRG has current assets of $1.3 million, and current liabilities of $2.9 million<sup>3</sup>. (Ex. 2, Status Report, 2:7),

In accordance with proper accounting principles and common sense, pending and disputed legal recoveries as well as estimated recoveries from unprosecuted lawsuits cannot be reported or used as current assets to meet current obligations. As such, the Opposing Counsel has overstated current assets in its opposition by $3.4M. The Opposing Counsel incorrectly includes its own estimated recovery value of legally disputed amounts alleged to be due to PIRRG from its London Market reinsurers. Additionally, the Opposing Counsel suggests the estimated recoveries from a lawsuit filed against AON currently pending in Department 7 should also be included (Opp. 4:12 and n. 1). Recovery for any estimated award or estimated recovery collectable in the future, such as from the lawsuit against AON, however, is not a "current asset." A current asset is an item on an entity's balance sheet that is either cash, a cash equivalent, or which can be converted into cash within one year. In its Opposition, the Opposing Counsel included a disputed and speculative reinsurance recoverable amount of $3.416 million in its solvency analysis, which is not a current or admitted asset because it is not cash or a cash equivalent and is not available to pay current liabilities. The AON lawsuit alleged recoveries is not an admitted asset of PIRRG and cannot be treated as such according to standard accounting practices. As a result of the speculative nature of the disputed reinsurance balances with

B 3 It is unclear to what in the report the Opposing Counsel is citing in its Opposition. There is no corresponding data on the pages referenced.

the London Market reinsurers and the clear uncertainty associated with any future AON lawsuit recovery, PIRRG's total assets are $1,389,650, not the $5,029,648 represented by the Opposing Counsel in its Opposition.

B. NONE OF THE OPPOSING COUNSEL'S "ARGUMENTS" ARE RELEVANT OR HAVE LEGAL MERIT

The Opposing Counsel claims that the Special Deputy Receiver has "lost" alternately $850,000 or $805,000. (Opp. 9:4; 10:7; 8:6-7) It is unclear how the Opposing Counsel has arrived at these numbers, but regardless of their source, the amount of venom expended in the claim, all CAPS to emphasize shouting, as well as, the font size in which it is expressed, the claim is false. From the inception of the Temporary Receivership through September 30, 2020 as reported, the Special Deputy Receiver has accounted for all approved expenditures of the risk retention group. All known cash and cash equivalent assets have been properly secured in reputable banking institutions and accounted for. Attached as Exhibit 4 is a cash-flow table prepared by the Special Deputy Receiver from April 1, 2020 through September 30, 2020. At the inception of the temporary receivership the Special Deputy Receiver implemented through PIRRG staff in Florida, a weekly schedule to address all invoices and to ensure proper controls over weekly payables. The Special Deputy Receiver has accounted for all expenditures made on behalf of PIRRG. See Ex. 4.

The Opposing Counsel's accusations that the Special Deputy Receiver has worsened PIRRG's financial condition are false, irrelevant, and have no merit. The Opposing Counsel questions why the Special Deputy Receiver has not paid claims, has not taken steps to recover the over $3,000,000 in insurance receivables, and has not taken steps to pursue the AON litigation. This list of complaints and grievances shows again a profound misapprehension of the law of insurance receiverships. The conduct of delinquency proceedings, including asset gathering, claim prioritization and distribution, are governed by the statutory process set forth in chapter 696B of the NRS. As indicated in the Motion, upon the commencement of delinquency proceedings, the Commissioner, when appointed as receiver, is statutorily vested with title to all of the assets of the delinquent insurer. See NRS 696B.290(2). As permanent receiver, she can then proceed to sue to recover the assets or sue for damages and begin the claims process.

As has been pointed out in the past, the placement of this matter in a temporary receivership has complicated and hindered the Special Deputy Receiver's ability to proceed. Without a permanent receivership and a liquidation order, the Special Deputy Receiver cannot begin the statutory method of resolving and prioritizing claims through a formal proof of claims process. At the present moment the Special Deputy Receiver's hands are tied. This, in part, is why a permanent order of liquidation is vital. The cash-flow table (Ex. 4), prepared by the Special Deputy Receiver from April 1, 2020 through September 30, 2020,<sup>4</sup> clearly shows all money coming into and leaving the PIRRG "estate." The Special Deputy Receiver has accounted for all expenditures made on behalf of PIRRG.

As with the rest of the Opposing Counsel's arguments, the argument that the Temporary Receiver "is doing nothing to assist in the financial health of PIRRG" (Opp. 8-10), is not only without merit, but is utterly irrelevant to the Motion before the Court, even if it were factually accurate, which it is not. The Opposing Counsel disregards every provision of the Nevada Liquidation Act comprehensive scheme to make further miscellaneous legally pointless and factually baseless, inflammatory arguments, again, in the hope of distracting the Court and stopping the statutorily-mandated process from proceeding.

The Opposing Counsel's list of criticisms once again shows the lack of understanding of the law of insurance receiverships.<sup>5</sup> Receiver's responsibilities are to all of the 8 (Emphasis added).

&lt;sup>5</sup> The Nevada Liquidation Act's statutory scheme quite precisely delineates what deference the Legislature intended to give the Receiver, whose actions and decisions may not to be disapproved unless expressly found to be arbitrary or capricious. See NRS 696B.290 (7) which provides:

[A]ll actions of the receiver therein reported shall be subject to the court's approval, but the court shall not withhold approval or disapprove any such action unless found by the court after a hearing thereon in open court to be unlawful, arbitrary or capricious.

receivership estate's creditors and the public in general. The statutory receiver is not "retained" for the private satisfaction of the likes of the Opposing Counsel or its clients. Even if the Opposing Counsel's complaints factually had any basis (which they don't), they certainly do not have any legal merit as far as the Motion for Liquidation is concerned, or otherwise. The Special Deputy Receiver has discontinued significant expenditures in anticipation of a liquidation proceeding and to preserve as much of PIRRG's assets as possible while maintaining the essential services and resources to quickly implement the liquidation requirements upon entry of a liquidation order. Exhibit 4 lists the essential services paid by the Special Deputy Receiver.

The accusations by the Opposing Counsel pertaining to the production of documents are yet another delay tactic. All of the people subpoenaed by PIRRG have responded save one, and thousands of documents have been provided.<sup>6</sup> The fact remains that the documents remaining to be produced are similar to those that have already been produced. None of the documents have any bearing on the only question relevant to the Temporary Receiver's Motion for Order of Liquidation, namely whether either of the standalone grounds for liquidation has been met -- has PIRRG complied with the Order of the Commissioner of November 19, 2019, and, in the alternative, is PIRRG solvent. The answer to these salient questions is, has been and will remain to be "No," regardless of the documents produced or to be produced. The liquidation proceedings must be started and if the remaining documents are still believed to be warranted by the Court, said production will proceed parallel to the liquidation proceedings not in lieu of them.

This includes actions of any consultants hired by the Receiver, including special deputy receiver, all serving "at the pleasure" of the Commissioner. NRS 696B.255 (1). NRS 696B.255 (1) provides:

The Commissioner, as receiver, rehabilitator or liquidator, may appoint one or more special deputies who have all the powers and responsibilities of a receiver . . . The persons appointed pursuant to this section serve at the pleasure of the Commissioner.

employees devote all of his time to the production of documents for PIRRG. Other statutory deadlines for the examination of insurers and other analysis also comes due and requires immediate attention. The Division and its employee continue to work on the production of documents whenever possible.

The Opposing Counsel's final attempt to distract the Court is by resurrecting its argument that the Special Deputy Receiver did not initially file a quarterly Status Report with the Court. As explained previously, there was a question as to whether these reports were required given the temporary status of the receivership. As has also been shown, as soon as the Status Report was requested, one was filed with the Court. This issue has been resolved and is currently moot and, again, entirely irrelevant to the Motion before the Court. If the Opposing Counsel wished to continue to devote time to this particular issue, it could have filed a Reply to the Temporary Receiver's Opposition to its unnecessary Motion to Compel, but elected not to do so.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth in her Motion for Liquidation and this Reply, Temporary Receiver respectfully requests that her Motion to Liquidate and Other Permanent Relief be granted and a hearing to show cause be rescheduled.
